THE HISTORY

OF THE

ENDOWMENTS OF VICTORIA

AND DECEASED

CANTONMENT AND FORTIFICATION

BY THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

OF THE PROVINCE OF VICTORIA

AND DECEASED

LONDON

PRINTED BY J. H. COOPER

(1860)

A D V E R T I S E M E N T.

THIS Repertory of the Endowments of Vicarages in the Diocese of Canterbury, is a Second Edition of a Work printed in 4^{to} in 1763. It is now much enlarged and improved by many Discoveries made since that Time in the Records, Registers, &c. of the See of Canterbury, and those of the Dean and Chapter of that Cathedral.

To this Edition the Author has added the best Account he hath been able to collect of the Endowments of Vicarages in the Diocese of Rochester; which (imperfect as it is) will, He hopes, prove acceptable to the Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Kent.

Doctors Commons,

St. GREGORY's Priory, near Canterbury.

To this Priory of Regular Black Canons were appropriated the following Parsonages; viz. Betrichedene, St. Dunstan, Elmested, Livingstone, Natindon, North-Gate, Stallesford, Taninton, Waltham, and Westgate. To the augmenting these Vicarages and Curacies, Abp. Juxon gave 210l. per Ann. out of the Great Tithes, A. D. 1661. Some of them were augmented 20l. per Annum, as Waltham and others. I suppose more or less, as the Abp. thought was needful. Bishop Kennet (Case of Impropriations, p. 256.) says, there were 2 or 13 Vicarages or Curacies belonging to this Priory.

Dat. 12 Kal. Maii, A. D. 1268.

Elham (given to Merton College by Prince Edward, afterwards King Edward I.) had a vicarage of 30 marks per Ann. reserved to it in

Abp. Boniface's appropriation of it, bearing date 12 Kal. Maii, 1268.

These 30 Marks as a stated Salary or Portion (and not Tithes, &c. to that Amount) were continued by a subsequent Composition or Decree of Abp. Wareham, bearing date 25 June, 1532, upon a Dispute between the College and Mr. John Webb, then Vicar of Elham, concerning the same. But in 1559 the College, of their own accord, agreed to let the Vicarial Tithes, &c. to Mr. Thomas Carden, the then Vicar, at an easy Rent, upon his discharging the said College of the sum of 20l. (al. 30 Marks) which they should “ yearly pay to the vicar of “ Elham, by virtue of the aforesaid “ Composition.” And this Lease, with this Clause or Condition, has been renewed to every subsequent Vicar since that Time. The Vicars now have likewise another Lease of some Wood-ground from the said College. See the original Instruments in the Treasury of Merton College.

WOODNESBORNE, Vic.

In the Deanry of Sandwich, was appropriated to the Abbey of Leedes, and on the Dissolution of that Abbey was granted by King Henry VIII.
to the Dean and Chapter of Rochester, with the Patronage of it.
The Church, dedicated to St. Mary,
was of the Patronage of one Asselma, who gave this Church to the Prior and Convent of Leedes, and for that purpose

purpose furrendered it into the hands of Archbishop William (Corboyl) about A. D. 1122. who gave and granted it to the Canons, &c. in proprios usus perpetuo possidendam, specialiter ad inveniendum Canonicis, &c. necessaria indumenta. In 1267, a Dispute arose between the Prior and Convent of Ledes, Rectors of this Church, and Sir Adam Vicar, about the small Tithes, of the Crofts and Curtlages, in the Parish of Woodnesberghe, which was thus determined by the Prior of the Conventual Church of Rochester, the Pope's Delegate to judge in this Controversy, viz. that the said Prior and Convent, Rectors of the Church of Woodnesberghe, shall, quietly, for ever, wholly receive, without any exception, all the greater Tithes of Wheat, Barley, Oats, Beans, Beans, Pease, and of every sort of Blade, arising or to arise, of all Lands, Crofts, Curtlages, &c. within the said Parish; and that the said Prior and Convent shall yearly pay for ever, to the said Adam and his Successors, half a Seam of Barley, and half a Seam of Beans, at the Nativity of the Lord. In 1280 another Dispute was tried before the Archdeacon's Official, betwixt the Religious and Sir William, perpetual Vicar of this Church, about the payment of the Procuration of the Archdeacon of Canterbury, cum in Ecclesia de Woodnesberghe memorata visitaverit, which was adjudged to be paid by the Vicar (MS. Lewis, p. 210.)

ALDINGTON, Rect.

Of this Church the great Erasmus was Rector, by the Importunity of his Patron Archbp. Warham.

He was collated to it March 22, 1511; but he soon resigned it, on condition of a Pension of 20l. a year being paid to him out of it by Dr. John Thornton, the Archbishop's Suffragan; but there being a Misunderstanding betwixt him and Erasmus about paying this Pension, and Thornton being besides taken up with a multiplicity of Business in doing his Suffragan's Office, the Archbishop collated Richard Masters, A. M. Nov. 18, 1514, of whom Erasmus gives this Character; "that " he was a young Man, well skilled " in Divinity." He was hanged with the others concerned with that Impostor Elizabeth Barton, a Servant Maid of this Parish, commonly called The Holy Maid of Kent. (MS. Lewis, p. 5.)

BIDDENDEN, Rect.

A Farm called by the name of The Bread and Cheese Farm, rented at GOODNESTONE, Donative.

Goodnestone Donative, or rather a perpetual Curacy, in the Deanery of Bridge.

This Church was appropriated to the Provost and Canons of the Collegiate Church of Wingham, by whom was allowed to the Priest who officiated here a yearly Pension of 3l. 6s. 8d. * above the Small Tithes.

On the Dissolution of the College, a Grant was made, &c. It is now Part of the Estate of Sir Brooke Bridges, Bart. who is the Donor of this little Donative. Ibid. p. 114.

OSPRINGE, Vic.

Just by the Way-side was an Hospital called Maison Dieu, or Domus

Dei, erected, as it is said, by Henry III.

It consisted of a Master, who was called Magister Hospitalis Beatæ Mariæ Virginis de Ospringe, three regular Freres, or Brethren *, whose Profession was of the Order of the Holy Cross, and of two Secular Clerks, whose Office it was to pray for the souls of Henry III. his Predecessors and Successors; and also to be hospitable, and give Entertainment to the King in his Progress this way, who had therefore an Apartment here called Camera Regis, and to the poor and needy Passengers and Pilgrims.

Here likewise the Knights Templars, and after them the Hospitallers, are said to have reposed themselves in

After the Diffolution of the Alien Priories, the Parfonage of Ofpringe was appropriated to this Houfe, as was the Parfonage of Hedcrone; the other Part of their revenue lay at Lurenden, in Challock, and at Hokeling, Ryde, Marfh, and other places in the Ifle of Shepway.

A MEMORIAL concerning the Fall of OSPRINGE STEEPLE, entered and subscribed at a Vestry, October 20, 1695.

The Steeple of Ospringe was built of Flints, and very antient. The form was circular, like a round Tower; and by some, thought to be a Danish Building, and before the Conquest. Over the Steeple was a tall Spire or Sharp, covered with Shingles of the height of fifty feet or more above the Flint-work ; the Weight whereof did probably hasten the Fall. It appears now that the whole Fabrick was all over decayed, rotten and ruinous, both in the Flint and Wood-work, and not likely to have held out much longer. But on Friday, being the eleventh Day of October, 1695, at which Time his Majesty William the Third, King of England, passed by in his return from the Campaign in Flanders, the Bells were ordered to be rung for joy, to express the Affections of this Neighbourhood to the King, &c. and so continued to ring some Hours after his Majesty passed by ; when about Three of the Clock in the Afternoon the whole Fabrick fell down, whilst they were in the act of ringing, without Damage to any Person, or to the Body of the Church, the Timber being generally all all spoiled, but the Bells safe, only the Canons of the great Bell broke.
